

XIXY-SEVENTH YEAR

WORK IS RESUMED TUESDAY ON FUNERAL HOME FOR COMANCHE

Building and Equipment to Be Modern in Every Respect.

Work on the new funeral home for Comanche was resumed Tuesday. The foundation, as completed some weeks since, will be used with some minor changes. The building and equipment will be modern in every detail, adding much to the rapidly growing Comanche; a plant of which Comanche citizens will be justly proud.

In addition to the modern equipment and other necessary facilities, there will be a modern air-conditioned chapel seating about 200 in comfortable pews. The name of the new organization will be "The Comanche Funeral Home" with Porter B. Franks as manager and chief funeral director. The merchandise and equipment of the present funeral home of Higginbotham Bros. & Co. will be transferred to the new home, Higginbotham's retaining stock in the new organization; management however will be under the direction of Mr. Franks. Rooms vacated by the removal from Higginbotham's store will be used for their departments, according to J. Williams.

The Chief predicts that the general public will learn with pleasure of the probable early completion of the home. Also of the advancement and permanent location in Comanche of Mr. Franks, who in his chosen profession, has unusual ability and the happy faculty of pleasing his patrons. The Chief joins the citizenship in extending a hearty welcome to Comanche's newest business institution.

Zion Hill Gets Baptist Ass'n

Zion Hill Church was awarded the 66th annual session of the Comanche Baptist Association for 1940 at the conclusion of the two day session held last week at the Sweetwater Church.

The meeting at Sweetwater was one of the most successful held in recent years. All officers were elected including: T. N. Carter, Moderator; D. E. Nabers, Clerk; Wm. Reese, Treasurer, and D. D. Tidwell, Cor-Secy.

Three Fined On Speeding Charges

Three motorists were charged with speeding in Justice George C. Wetzel's Court here last week. The proceedings as filed in his office are as follows:

A. V. Tatum, speeding, fine and cost $14.50.
Calvin Barnes, speeding, fine and cost $14.50.
R. P. Erwin, speeding, fine and cost $14.50.

Proctor School To Open Monday

Proctor School will open Monday for an eight months term according to Perry Moring who is serving his second year as superintendent. Other teachers are Mrs. Moring, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pinson, Marcella Shults, Evan Miller, and Mrs. Grace Nichols. Work on the new school building was scheduled to begin today or Saturday.

20 Years Ago

From The Comanche Chief, Sept. 5, 1919.

The Tippitt Well was given a third shot of nitro glycerin this week, but as yet the results of the shot are undeterminable.

W. A. Byford of Comanche brought in five apples this week into The Chief that weighed four pounds. Two of the apples weighed slightly over a pound each; the apples were raised on his farm near Comanche.

At a meeting of the school board this week, Dr. A. J. Gray was selected to fill the place of Judge J. H. McMillan, deceased. The following teachers were selected to fill vacancies that have occurred: Miss Elva Baxter, Mrs. Ida Hunter, Mrs. W. H. Carpenter, and Miss Floy Harris.

Troy Cauley has accepted a position with the Smith Drug Company. In the presence of the immediate families and a few friends, Miss Ruth Long of Comanche and Mr. Clarence Ellis of Lowell, Arizona, were quietly married Thursday evening at nine-thirty at the home of the bride's parents.

I shoe anything you can lead, drag, or drive into my shop.—W. B. Carner, Blacksmith, Comanche.

Hundreds To Be Here For County Singing Tonight

Hundreds of people will be in Comanche tonight to attend the Comanche Quartet Singing Convention according to Cecil Horton, who said that even a larger crowd is expected than was at the last meeting here.

A number of noted quartets from other counties are expected to be here and take part in the program.

The singing tonight will be held in the auditorium of the Comanche High School and it is believed that there will be plenty of seats for every one.

County Not To Discount Early Tax Payments

Comanche County will not join with the State in allowing a discount for early payments of taxes according to County Judge R. S. McCharen who said that the Commissioners Court had taken no action. The State allows a 3 per cent discount on taxes paid in October, a 2 per cent discount if paid in November, and 1 per cent if paid in December.

The bill as passed by the last Legislature intended for the reduction to be included in all tax divisions, but the Attorney General later ruled that the Commissioners Court would have to approve the discount for the County, the School Board for the Schools, and the City Council for the City.

The City of Comanche will not allow the discount, Hardie Jones, City Secretary, states.

P. A. Pettit, Tax Collector, says that under the State law, a person cannot pay his State tax without paying his County tax.

Six Bales Cotton Now Ginned Here

Six bales of cotton have been ginned and weighed here according to C. F. Denny, Public Weigher.

Due to the low acreage, the three Comanche gins have set their ginning dates at every Tuesday and Friday. Gimmers predict that only 1,000 bales will be marketed here in Comanche this fall.

The first two bales were ginned here August 19. J. T. Smart of near Comanche and G. A. Tischer of Priddy brought in this first 1939 Comanche County cotton.

Dove Season To Open Here September 15

Dove season in Comanche County will open Friday, September 15, and will continue through November 15, since Comanche County was designated as one of the counties in the Southern Zone.

Dove hunting in Texas is now divided into two seasons. The North Zone hunting season opened September 1 and will continue through October 31. Hunters in the South Zone open the season September 15, and are allowed to hunt until November 15.

Local hunters report that doves are more plentiful this season than in a number of years, and all say they are looking forward to another good hunting season.

Work Progressing On Starr's Store

Work is progressing nicely on remodeling the McDonald building on the East Side of the Square in which J. I. Starr is to open a variety store at an early date.

Already goods have begun to arrive and the fixtures are being installed. Work on arranging the stock is underway.

Comanche Is Featured As Home Of Melons, Pecans, Peanuts, Fruit

COMANCHE ONE OF OUTSTANDING DIVERSIFICATION COUNTIES OF HEART OF TEXAS, SAYS W.T.C.C.

BY CLARK COURSEY, W.T.C.C. Publicity Director

Thousands of people from more than thirty States have learned important facts about Comanche and Comanche County from the Diversified Agriculture display in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Resource and Museum Institute located in Abilene.

The District No. 10 booth, in which Comanche and Comanche County are included, is one of the most elaborate displays in the entire exhibit hall.

Comanche is mentioned prominently in the booth. The county is shown as a leading producer of watermelons, turkeys, fruits, grapes, pecans and peanuts.

The district sponsoring the Diversification booth is known as the Heart of Texas and the Hill Country area and is called in the title line of the exhibit, "The Country's Most Progressive Region for Conservation and Diversification."

Other counties in the district, in addition to Comanche, are Erath, Coleman, Brown, Hamilton, Bosque, Mills, McCulloch, San Saba, Lampasas, Coryell, McLennan, Mason, Llano, Burnet, Gillespie and Blanco. The area of these 17 counties is larger than the State of New Jersey. The population of the district is 315,000.

Products featured in the booth in paintings, colored cutouts, photographs, and on a lighted, moving miniature waterwheel include turkeys, fruits, corn, poultry, peanuts, dairy products, pecans, watermelons, cantaloupes, oats and hogs.

In addition, the area is shown

HIGHWAY 36 ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD AT GUSTINE ON SEPT. 14

Highway 36 Association will hold its annual meeting this year at Gustine, Thursday, September 14th. The citizens of Gustine and community are planning an old fashioned basket picnic. One and all are invited to participate. A full basket from the home folks will be appreciated as about 100 guests are expected. Don't forget that other communities are interested in Highway 36 and have been lending a hand towards its completion. Gustine delegates have always been royally entertained by other centers that have been hosts to the yearly meetings.

The morning will be given over to the business session of the organization, with a report of the secretary being especially important. Various reports will be heard from delegates as to progress along the route.

In the afternoon the formal opening of the new Highway 36 bridge over the South Leon River to have large production of cotton, livestock, wheat, wool and mohair and feed stuffs. This section also has manufacturing and wholesaling establishments with net sales of $142,000,000.

A map showing the counties in the district is seen at the top of the booth. Paintings show industrial plants, beauty spots, livestock feeding lots, fruit and pecan orchards, peanut field and a dairy farm. Photographs show cotton fields and gins, orchards, irrigation scenes, fields of feed, horses, hogs and poultry.

Comanche also has an individual panel in the exhibit hall, presenting photographs of some of the county's fine fruit and the following wording:

"Comanche. So named in the year 1856 by Capt. John Henry Brown, a great friend and admirer of the Comanche Indians. Population of City of Comanche, 3,000. Class A schools, modern school and church buildings. Newer a complete crop failure in Comanche. Because of the mild climate, desirable location and different types of fertile soil Comanche County is an ideal place for diversified farming and the easiest place in the world to make a good living. Comanche's native and improved pecans are shipped to every State in the U. S. Extra fine watermelons, blackberries, Elberta peaches and fruits of all kinds are a continuous source of income—along with cotton, grains and peanuts. Dairying and poultry raising are active and proven enterprises in Comanche. Highway 10-U. S. Highway 67, State Highways 81 and 36 all cross at Comanche."

will be held, at which time prominent speakers will be heard. The Highway Commission members and other highway representatives have been invited and are expected to be present.

A musical program is being arranged. Lunch will be served picnic style under a pecan grove adjacent to the new bridge.

Those who know picnics will do well to bring along with their bountiful baskets a chair, stool, box or keg to relieve the pressure on their feet.

Lamkin and Hamilton communities should be especially well represented as discussion will be held about continuing Highway 36 from the present terminus at Macksville.

S. B. (Sam) Todd was elected as general chairman of the Gustine committee in charge of the meeting. Sub-committee chairmen are to be appointed at a later date.

Texas Turkeys Are Penalized For Poor Finish

Texas turkeys are penalized for a poor finish, says John Dillon, Manager of the Community Public Service Company who handed out the following article taken from The Star-Telegram, in which A. H. Demke, nationally known poultryman of Stephenville, reviews the turkey market outlook:

Low prices of Texas turkeys compared with the average prices paid on the Thanksgiving market over the United States are arousing the sharp criticism of Texas producers and drawing careful study from those interested in improving the quality of Texas birds.

"Every year it is more and more noticeable that Texas turkeys are penalized 4 to 6 cents a pound in Eastern markets," says A. H. Demke of Stephenville, who is secretary of the Texas Poultry Federation.

This statement is verified by the following statistics which appeared in the June, 1939, issue of (Continued On Last Page)

City To Build New House At Lake Eanes

The erection of a new six room house for the City of Comanche at Lake Eanes will get underway during the early part of next week.

The new home is to be for the caretaker of the lake, and is to be a nice home of the rock veneer type. It is to be built on the hill north of the spillway, near the Old Cora Court House.

Mayor M. Coleman announces that this will be a self liquidating project, and the reduced expenses of the upkeep and labor of pumping water in Comanche, will enable the house to pay for itself within four years.

This will not be a government project, Mayor Coleman says that he expects the house to be ready for the Lake Caretaker by the early part of October.

Gustine School Term Is Begun

Gustine School opened its 1939-40 term Monday, September 4th, with a good attendance. A number of patrons attended the opening exercise. Superintendent Miller gave an official welcome to students and teachers, introducing two new teachers, Miss Dorothy D. Couch of Brownwood at High School English teacher, and E. V. McCarty as assistant coach.

The outlook is excellent for another good school term, Mr. Miller stated.

Rev. McGinnis and Rev. Greenbatt attended the opening exercise. Both made impressive talks to the students.

"We invite all patrons to visit the Gustine School and welcome constructive criticism as well as praise. The aim of the faculty is a better school for a better student body," Superintendent Miller said.

Two Fined Here In Liquor Trials

Ellie Cloud of Comanche and Elza Billingslea of Gustine were fined here this week for unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor in the only two cases to be tried in this term of the Comanche County Court.

Ellie Cloud was convicted, and fined $100 and court costs.

Elza Billingslea was convicted on the same charge of unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor in a dry territory and also for repetition of the same offense. He was fined $200 and court costs.

Higginbothams Win City Softball Title

By defeating the Fagan team in the fifth and deciding game of the play-off series Thursday night, the Higginbotham team won the City softball title for 1939. The score was 15 to 5.

The two teams finished the regular schedule in a tie by beating out the Dudley and W.O.W. teams and each had won two games of the play-off before last night's final.

COMANCHE COUNTY HISTORY IS TOLD AT PIONEER REUNION

City Schools Begin Session For 1939-1940

The Comanche school enrollment the first day totaled 858, and is expected to pass the 900 mark within the next two weeks. Superintendent W. Z. Compton says that he expects the total enrollment of Comanche High School to reach 350 this year.

Opening day enrollment of Comanche's three schools follow:

High School	308
Grammar School	270
West Ward	280

Harmon Howard, director of the Comanche Band for a number of years, has announced that he will finish his M.A. degree at North Texas State Teachers College this year, and has applied for a leave of absence. The school board is expected to appoint a new band director in its meeting next week.

The new rock veneer band hall was approved this week by the local school board, and construction is expected to begin by the first of October.

Plans have already been forwarded to the State NYA office at San Antonio, and the work order is expected to be received here within the next few days.

Peanuts Begin Heavy Movement

The first heavy movement of Comanche County's 1939 peanut crop is now underway, and will continue at full peak throughout the next two months.

The first of the Comanche County peanuts, the State's largest producer, were marketed here over three weeks ago, but according to Walter Durham, manager of the local firm, Dunham Pecan and Peanut Plant, this week's movement is the heaviest of the current season. The peak of the market will be reached around the first of October.

The yield is expected to fall under that of last year's bumper crop, but will be much better than first expected, continues Mr. Durham. Mr. Durham says that the yield in the immediate vicinity is less than reported yields at Gustine, Proctor, and De Leon.

Peanut prices are holding up well; good peanuts are still bringing around ninety cents per bushel.

Charity Softball Monday Night

A charity softball game will be played at the local ball park Monday night between the local Firemen and the Comanche business men.

All proceeds of the game will go to the Firemen's Christmas Fund to buy presents for the needy.

Maurice Hoffman Now Is Lawyer

Maurice Hoffman who recently received two degrees from the University of Texas, is now a licensed lawyer. He took the bar examination several weeks ago and yesterday received word that he passed with high grades.

Hoffman will remain in Comanche as manager of the Hoffman store until his father, Charles Hoffman who has been ill for some time, is able to resume work.

Ike Phifer To Build New Residence Here

Work began Tuesday morning on a new residence for Mr. and Mrs. Ike Phifer.

The new home is being built on the lot formerly owned by Clemmons and Martin, and is located on Sidney Street, in front of the Joe Marshall residence. It is to be a nice six room frame house.

DR. AND MRS. KLINGMAN ENTERTAINED TUESDAY

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Klingman were given a house warming and shower by members of the Central Christian Church and other friends Tuesday night. The guests first met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cox and went from there to the Klingman residence.

J. R. Eanes Gives Interesting Facts of Happenings Of Years Ago.

It is a matter of record that Comanche County was created and organized in 1856. The territory composing the county has a history that dates back of '56. Robert T. Hill, among the best authorities on early Texas history, and the best authority on Texas geology and geography, has said that it is probable that Coronado, the Spanish explorer passed through Logan's Gap in 1541. The first record we have of the White man traversing this territory is in about 1849 when the military road was laid out from Fort Games some fifteen miles southeast of Gatesville to Camp Colorado some ten or twelve miles northeast from Coleman, and on a little west of north to Phantom Hill, Camp Cooper, Forts Belknap and Griffin. Later this road was extended from Camp Colorado to Fort Chadbourne near the present site of San Angelo.

F. Marion Cross who freighted supplies over this route to these camps and forts in about '50 and '51 and later settled on Mountain Creek in '55, says of the Comanche Territory in his "Early Days in Central Texas," "A more lovely county I could not hope to see;" and today, though somewhat scarred by the ravages of the white man Comanche County has fertile soils and much scenic beauty. She has within her confines landscapes that for simple beauty and loveliness are hardly surpassed in any land or clime. No wonder the Red Man did not want to give it up.

It is hard for our people of today to vision this county as clothed in a luxuriant growth of a variety of native grasses through which grazed and fed uncounted antelope, deer, buffalo, turkeys and prairie chickens, and only inhabited by a few roving bands of Indians.

If you are acquainted with the topography of Central Texas you will understand why Comanche County was the gateway to the west and northwest; this old military road came up the divide between the Colorado and Brazos Rivers, the "old beef trail" followed this general route joining the Dodge City Trail at or near Camp Colorado; and the first survey ever made for the Texas Pacific Railroad, then the Memphis and El Paso, followed the same route. To old settlers this old military road was known as the "Fort Phantom Hill Road."

In about 1849 McCoy and Darrymple secured a contract from the Government to freight supplies from Bell and Coryell Counties to the above named camps and forts. These supplies were hauled in wagons, drawn by oxen, six yoke of oxen to the wagon and ten wagons to the train, each wagon carrying 100 to 125 bushels of corn or its equivalent in weight of other supplies. On an average one month was required for the round trip. F. Marion Cross in his "Early Days in Central Texas" gives an interesting account of these trips, and this account comes from first hand as Cross was one of the drivers.

When these military camps and forts were established across the State to the west of us it gave protection to this section and the peoples of East Texas, East Central Texas and other regions farther east began to look to this territory for homes.

The history of the present Comanche County began in 1854 when Jesse Mercer, F. M. Collier, B. J. Himsley, Joseph Hicks and F. H. Neely made a trip to this immediate territory and determined to settle here. In so far as any record goes the first permanent settlement made in what is now Comanche County was made (Continued On Page 3)

While he has no official information, County Judge R. S. McCharen believes that work on tearing down the court house building here will get underway at least in November.

It is believed that there will be ample office space in Comanche to house the County and Federal offices while the new court house is being erected.

There will likely be an increased demand for furnished apartments in Comanche during the construction of the new building.

President Roosevelt says he believes that America can keep out of the European War. Woodrow Wilson was re-elected President in 1916 on the plea that he had kept us out of war, but he was unable to do so the next year.

The President does not have the power to declare war except when our country is actually invaded. That power belongs to Congress. Clyde Garrett is our Congressman. If he visits our country those of us who oppose America's entering the war should tell him so. We may not think our opinion amounts to much, but if every person would tell his Congressman that he opposes war except when our country is in actual danger, it would prevent war.

In 1914 when the World War broke out in Europe, the price of cotton dropped so low that farmers here refused to sell. A "Buy A Bale of Cotton" movement was started in nearly every Texas town when many business men bought a bale at 10 cents and held it until the price went up.

The price of cotton dropped off last week when war broke out just as it did in 1914. By 1915 the price of cotton began to increase and continued until it finally reached 40 cents.

Even if America does not get into the war, it will be deeply affected. Prices of food products and clothing will increase if we are to judge by the last war. There will be a spirit of uneasiness and unrest here.

Most members of the American Legion according to local Legionaires are opposed to the United States entering the war. Why should we send our fine young men over there to be butchered, they ask?

The Albany News says that war is a law of nature to prevent the over-population of the world. If there were no wars or other pestilences in a period of 180 years the world would be over-populated to the point where there would not be standing room and cannibalism would again be in vogue. The paper further states that 200 or 300 years ago peasants laid down by the roadside in France and died of starvation and other hungry human hordes came along and ate their bodies.

The Comanche Lions Club will entertain their ladies and the public school faculty with a banquet at Lake Eanes Tuesday night. This has been an annual custom for several years and we think a good one.

One hundred and seventy-four persons were killed on the Texas highways as a result of drunken drivers during the first six months of this year according to a news item just released from Austin.

As the monkey said of his tale when he backed into the lawn mower, "it won't be long now" until the football season opens. A week from tonight Rising Star is scheduled to play the Indians here.

Recently we called Mayor Coleman's attention to a bad place in the pavement on Sidney Street just west of Alex Norwood's. In a few days, the place was repaired. Mayor Coleman stated that the City is anxious to keep the streets in as good a condition as possible and while they do not have the money for any big jobs, any bad place in the streets if it can be done at a small cost will be repaired if the fact is called to his attention or that of the street foreman, Merlin Jenkins.

For years the Sidney community has been one of Comanche's most important trade territories. These people have a good road from Sidney to the City limits, but in muddy weather the street leading into town from the intersection of Highway 36 to the Brownwood Highway is almost impassible and sometimes even a wrecker has to be sent out to bring in a car which takes the wrong route.

If that part of Highway 36 from the intersection of the Brownwood Highway through Comanche was graded and traveled, the Sidney people would have a good road all the way.

Another reason why this street should be fixed now is that the present population of Comanche according to the 1930 Federal census is 2435, but the 1940 census is expected to show a population of at least 3,000. The point is that the State Highway Department will pave and finish a highway through towns of less than 2500 according to the Federal census, but cities over that size must pay for its own paving.

J. I. Starr says he knows that at least 45 people read The Comanche Chief the first day it is issued for when a news item appeared in it last Friday morning telling of his plans to re-open a variety store here, he had 45 applications for jobs before the sun went down. He had many good applicants but he plans to use the two he had when he moved away from here several years ago—Mrs. Jess Odell and Mrs. Bill Mewborne.

The Brownwood City Council last week voted to allow the telephone system of that city to raise the rates on business phones from $4.50 to $5.50 per month and of residence phones from $2.50 to $2.75.

The Brownwood City Council

also voted to levy a one per cent gross receipt tax of public utilities including telephone, telegraph, electric and gas companies.

President Roosevelt paid a compliment to a Texas institution recently when speaking of Texas A. & M. College he described it as the greatest agricultural college in the world.

Texas A. & M. also is the largest school in the world located in the country. It is in Brazos County, five miles from Bryan, a town of about 8,000 people. When A. & M. was established in 1876, educators believed that the country or a small town was the best place for a college. In recent years the tendency has been to relocate them in cities. Baylor was moved from the small town of Independence to Waco, and TCU was moved from Thorp Springs first to Waco and then to Fort Worth.

In European cities the streets after sundown are darkened because the people fear a charge of the enemy's air forces.

With the harvesting of fall crops at hand and work about to get underway on the new court house, there should be plenty of work for every one in Comanche County who really wants to work and is not particular about the kind.

Idle money and idle labor are unprofitable. To be of use each must be properly employed.

Nearly every town the size of Comanche and even smaller now has a "red light" to govern traffic at the intersection of highways with the city streets. Goldthwaite has one.

Bible Thought: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand."—Matthew 12:25.

Business Thought: "Did it ever strike you what your home would sell for if all the stores in this town were permanently closed?"

Gem of Thought: "If Rome had been built in a day, it would not have amounted to much. Most people who succeed do so by plodding with patience."

Vice President Garner is considered a big man in Washington says Congressman South of Coleman. "I have heard none speak lightly of his ability. He is very capable and knows government as no other man does and he is absolutely fearless," the Congressman asserts.

The Brady City Council has passed an ordinance making it unlawful to use a public address system within the city limits. The penalty is $100 fine for the operation of a loud speaker.

Monday was Labor Day. In towns the size of Comanche, the day receives small consideration, yet the day reminds us that human values must always be placed ahead of material values. In the U.S.A. the working conditions are the best in the world. In most small towns the employer and the employees have common interests and each work for the good of the firm since upon its success depends whether or not the payroll can be met.

What would a man do without friends asks The Eastland Record? A business man especially cannot afford to be without friends. Under no circumstances can you get business from a man who dislikes you. A buyer may be indifferent to you and still trade with you on the merits of your product, but if he gets to dislike you it is fatal.

What would the members of a congregation think if the preacher showed up late for the services, asks The Clifton Record which says he has just as much right to as has the members of his congregation.

Modern young men would hardly find to their liking the rules laid down by Alexander Hamilton, first secretary of the treasury for his eldest son, Philip. Some what condensed, they were as follows:

"From April to October 1 he will rise at 6 o'clock; the rest of the year not later than 7. Ten will be his hour of going to bed throughout the year.

"From breakfast until 9 he is to read law. At 9 he goes to the office to write and read law until dinner. After dinner he reads law at home until 5. From 5 to 7 he does what he pleases; from 7 to 10 he reads or studies what he pleases.

"From noon on Saturday he is at liberty to amuse himself. On Sunday he will attend church, and may devote the rest of the day to innocent amusements."

Philip Hamilton was described as a youth of great promise, but he did not live many years under the rules prescribed for him. At the age of 17, for resenting disparaging remarks about his father he was challenged to a duel, in which he fell mortally wounded. About three years later Alexander Hamilton, at the age of 47, was also mortally wounded in his famous duel with Aaron Burr, vice-president of the United States. Burr was thereafter virtually an outcast from society.

In every book of laws that has not been recently renovated there are usually found some silly and absurd statutes such as this one which a judge in Colorado uncovered: Arrest and fine of $1 for walking along a public street while nursing a nosebleed. And here is another one—arrest and fine of $1 for walking on the streets if deformed, diseased or maimed. It is ridiculous to us that such silly laws could have ever been passed by sensible people, but some of the laws that we are passing now will seem just as unbelievable to the coming generations.

Bill: "Have you seen one of those instruments which can tell when a man is lying?"

Hank: "Seen one? I married one!"

At twenty, few know where they're going or what they are going to do when they get there. At fifty most of us are pretty sure that we aren't going to be President of the United States and that we aren't going to own a million dollars. We know quite definitely what we like and don't like, and why. If we are sensible, we do more of what we like and less of what we don't like.—William Feather.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Anthony of Monahans spent the week-end in Comanche with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Anthony.

Park Huntington, Resident Highway Engineer, and Gerald Bryson are now working at Eastland for that department.

Mrs. A. J. Blevins underwent a major operation at a Gorman hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Blevins and Kelsey were in Comanche Sunday.

John D. Waring, Jr. is now with a new department of the Texas Highway Department, having recently accepted a position as a safety inspector and instructor and will travel over several counties with Comanche as headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boswell and son, John D. of Nocona, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Boswell and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Howell last week-end.

MORE ABOUT COUNTY HISTORY

on December 18, 1854, when Jesse Mercer and F. M. Collier camped on Mercer's Creek on what is now the Walter Barret ranch about three miles west from Newburg. Then in 1855 came Joseph Hicks, B. J. Holmesley, James Cunningham, Geo. W. Montgomery, F. H. Neely, J. M. and F. M. Cross, J. A. McGuire, Ransome Tuggle, Jesse Bond, T. C. Frost,

T. J. Dunlap, Ishams, Parkers, McKinzie, Whitneys, Northcutts, Cokers, T. W. Mathews, Charley Campbell, Jonathan Watson, Jeffreys, T. J. Nabors, and likely others whose names we are unable to give. By late '55 there were thirty or more families in the county and a move was started to organize the county. The county was created early in 1856, an election was held and the county organized in the spring of 1856. The first officers of the county in so far as we are able to give them were as follows: Jesse Bond, Chief Justice; F. M. Collier, County Clerk; James C. Martin, Sheriff, and T. J. Dunlap, Justice of the Peace. The Commissioners Court records of the county were destroyed by fire in 1860 and there is no record as to who the other officers were.

During the process of organization, F. A. Thompson and J. E. Bouldin who owned the Wm. H. Murray one third league of land on South Leon fourteen miles southeast from the present town of Comanche proposed to donate to the county eighty acres of this survey at Coma, overlooking the South Leon Valley, on condition that the county seat be located on this tract. The site was accepted by the county and Coma became the county seat and was soon a thriving frontier village. J. M. Cross opened the first store in the county, and this was soon followed by another opened by James and Sam Carnes. Cross also established an operated a steam saw mill. T. M. Mathews operated a wood shop where furniture was made for the pioneers and Tom Deaton had the first "livery."

The first deed was filed with F. M. Collier, County Clerk, on June 2, 1856; the first marriage license recorded was that of Thomas J. Holmesley and Elizabeth Cunningham. This license is dated October 22, 1856, and T. J. Dunlap, Justice of the Peace, certifies that he solemnized the rites of matrimony on October 23, 1856 at the residence of James Cunningham with N. N. Dawson and C. C. Campbell as witnesses; on the same day a marriage license was issued to Elias Deaton and Mary A. Wright. Jesse Bond, Chief Justice, certified that the rites of matrimony for this couple were solemnized by him on October 26, 1856, with John Wright and M. D. Cox as witnesses. The first probate case filed was that in the estate of Jno. M. Provan filed March 17, 1857. G. W. Montgomery was administrator and his bond was in the sum of $3,000 with Joseph Hicks, Jesse Mercer, J. A. McGuire and C. C. Campbell as sureties.

The first term of district court for Comanche County convened at Coma May 3, 1858, 19th Judicial District. N. W. Battle was District Judge; J. L. L. McCall, District

Attorney; James C. Martin, Sheriff, and Lon Price, district clerk. The first grand jury empaneled consisted of twenty men as follows: W. H. Lester, roman, Calvin Lester, James Jeffreys, P. N. Forehand, P. F. Gates, T. J. Nabors, W. M. Clements, J. B. Jopling, C. H. Isham, R. Kiser, W. C. Parker, Cary Woods, C. A. Striva, N. N. Dawson, E. H. Baier, H. F. Neely, H. F. Hoover, A. B. Townsend and Joseph Hicks. John W. Tally and Thomas Wilson were appointed bailiffs. The grand jurors and bailiffs drew $1.50 per day for three days service. The second term of district court for Comanche County convened at Coma on November 8, 1858 and the third and last term to convene at Coma began Monday, May 9, 1859, with Battle as Judge, McCall as District Attorney, R. C. Capel as District Clerk, and Tom Deaton as Sheriff, and the following were the last men to serve as grand jurors at Coma: Jesse Mercer, foreman; F. B. Gentry, Wm. Lester, Thomas Shorkey, James Neel, Jesse Green, Elias Deaton, Kenneth McKinzie, C. C. Campbell, John Davidson, Joseph Hicks, Thomas Logan, James Carnes, F. M. Collier, Robert Marshall. It will be seen that this grand jury was composed of fifteen men while the first was composed of twenty.

When Comanche County was first created it included a good sized slice of the west side of Hamilton County, a small part from northeast Brown County and a part of what is now north Mills County. When Hamilton County was organized in 1858 from Comanche, Coryell and Bosque Counties, Coma was the near the east line of the county to remain the county seat and a move was inaugurated to move the county seat to Comanche and this was consummated the latter part of May, 1859, so Coma was the county seat for three years, from the spring of 1856 to the spring of 1859. Coma was a trading point for some years after 1859, and an election on the question of secession was held there early in 1861. The Civil War coming on, and Indian depredations increasing, brought immigration to a standstill, and all business was soon concentrated at Comanche, the county seat.

The only protection the settlers had from Indians during Civil War days was two companies of Frontier Guards of about fifty men each, one commanded by Captain James Cunningham and the other by Capt. W. F. Robinson. Chas. Ewell is a survivor of Robinson's Company, and lives near Proctor. When the war was over Indian depredations continued until about 1870. Emigration did not get underway to this section again until the middle seventies and the county then settled rapidly.

Prompt Help For A Listless Child

Scoffing won't help a boy or girl who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But, here's something that will!

If sluggish bowels have your child headachy, bilious, upset, give him a little Syrup of Black-Draught tonight. Like the original famed BLACK-DRAUGHT, its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative. Helps impart tone to the bowel muscles.

Children like the taste of Syrup of Black-Draught. It is an all-vegetable product. When simple directions are followed, its action is gentle, but prompt and complete. Comes in two sizes: 50c and .25c.

INDIAN CREEK SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUP HONORS
SUPT. N. F. WILLIAMS

On Sunday, August 20th, almost the entire membership of the Indian Creek Methodist Sunday School met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Williams to help celebrate Mr. Williams' sixty-first birthday, and also to show their appreciation of his perfect attendance Sunday School record for this year. Mr. Williams has been superintendent of the Sunday School for several years.

On some pretense, Mr. Williams was lured away from Sunday School to the home of Edd Burdette, a son-in-law, arriving home after every one else had been there long enough to park their cars out of sight, and spread the lunch. The affair came as a complete surprise to the honoree.

A picnic lunch was served on long tables under shade trees near the house.

Mr. Williams received many useful gifts from his children and friends.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Brady York and son, Mrs. Viola Steward, Jodie Allen, Billie Clemons, Willie Preston Carmichael, Nathan Lee Kiser, Gerald and Iris Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Ocko Ferril and son, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Woolsey and children, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Woolsey, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harvey Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lee Williams and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie McDonald and daughter, Mrs. Mattie Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Therman McCullough and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Burdette and children, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williams and Grandmother Williams.

METHODIST CHURCH
E. R. Gordon, Pastor

Our people are gathering back to regular attendance upon the services of their church after long summer of visits and vacations. Over a 60 per cent increase in the attendance of Sunday School last Sunday over the Sunday before. We expect to be back to normal within the next Sunday or two. Let every Methodist and their friends who love worship with them, be present Sunday at 9:45 a. m. for Bible study, then at 11:00 a. m. for worship service. You will enjoy these services.

Evening worship services at 8 o'clock. Epworth Leagues meet 7:20.

"Your neighbor attends church why don't you?"

SOFTBALL PLAYERS ATTEND CHURCH IN BOD

Last Sunday night the softball players surprised the pastor the Methodist Church with a storm party. They attended church in a body. They congregated outside the church and just before services began they came marching in one great body and sang together in one section of the church. It was a beautiful sight to see those "enemies of the diamond" become friends in the church and sing and worship God together as friends and brethren. The pastor and members of the Methodist Church expressed great joy and appreciation for the surprise-party which brought them to church in one great body.

Why should not men be friends and neighbors and visit each other in their stores, farms, homes, and churches. It is a beautiful thing, highly commendable, altogether to be desired. May there be more such demonstrations of good sense and friendship shown in our community. —E. R. Gordon, Pastoor.

Ten Year Period Brings Many Startling Changes

Compare trains, airplanes, automobiles, refrigerators and other objects of 10 years ago with their today's counterpart and an amazing contrast is immediately apparent. Because development of these things has been gradual, most of us take even startling improvements more or less for granted. For example, we find that 10 years ago an electric refrigerator, like Frigidaire, had at least 25 fewer features than it has today. Just one decade ago, there were no one-piece steel cabinets; no meter-miser compressors, which cut operating costs by one-half; no application of the moist cold principle, known as the "cold wall"; no automatic tray release; no instant cube release; no five zones of cold; no stainless porcelain in the food compartment; no automatic defroster; no F-114 low pressure refrigerator; no specially designed meat tender and vegetable and fruit hydrator. These features, in addition to many more, including beauty of cabinet design, all have been introduced in the short space of 10 years.

Comanche County School Notes

BY DALE HOWARD,
County Superintendent.

The Brysonville School began its 1939-40 term last Monday with a good enrollment. Mr. and Mrs. C. Helms, Sr. have served this district as teachers for eight years, and the school has gone forward under their leadership. Brysonville is classed as an eight-grade school with two teachers. The upper grades are accommodated by the Comanche and Blanket High Schools.

Teacher Retirement System.

The 1938-39 Teacher Retirement System closed August 31. The Retirement System feels that it has been a most successful year, although the last session of the legislature did postpone the matter of naming a source of State revenue. The membership on July 1st exceeded forty-three thousand and $4,529,776.43 stood to the credit of the various members' accounts in the Teacher Saving Fund. The Retirement System is very appreciative of the splendid cooperation extended by the reporting officers throughout the State. Interest on members' contributions is distributed on August 31st of each year.

The law provides that a $100 annual membership fee shall be paid to the Teacher Retirement System by each member at the time such member makes his first regular retirement deduction to the System each school year.

Application Budgets for Aid.

We have just received the stack of application budgets for State Rural Aid. These applications ask for much more detailed information than has ever been requested. At any time one should like to review his application, we shall be glad to present it. All applications must be signed by the president and secretary of the various school districts; when in Comanche, please come by the office and sign. This pertains only to those schools which are seeking some form of Rural Aid, whether a contract school or not.

New Books.

We have many new books for the schools this year. All teachers are urged to keep a close check on the number of books issued to their school or room. The Textbook Division shows the county to have a much larger number of books in circulation than there has actually been accounted for. This condition causes a shortage on books, as there is a certain quota established and we are unable to exceed it. May we keep our quotas for the new books 100 per cent correct? You are also urged to ask for only the actual amount of books needed, with a small surplus of two or three, as some school could be short a few copies while another would have books not in use.

Daniel Reunion Held Near Lamkin

The Daniel reunion was held Saturday, August 5th at Old Fairview grounds four miles north-east of Lamkin.

This event marked the fourth annual affair the R. J. (Dick) Daniel descendants have held. More than 300 people were present. Barbecue, iced tea, coffee, and a basket lunch was served at the noon hour.

Music was furnished in the afternoon by the Daniel brothers, Faulkner brothers, and the White band.

The oldest person attending this gathering was Mrs. Margaret Dooley, age 92, an aunt of the Daniel brothers and sisters.

Since August 6, 1938, records show there has been two births and one marriage among the Daniel descendants. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Daniel of Lamkin, and a daughter ter born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wallace at Albany. The marriage of Miss Ernestine Daniel of Brownwood to Mr. Murphy, was solemnized June 1. She is the daughter of R. E. Daniel of Brownwood.

Relatives came from Oklahoma City and other distant points to assemble at this day of gathering of relatives and friends.

In the afternoon the records of the three past years were read by Wilburn Daniel, who had driven 500 miles to be present.

Walter Daniel, W. L. Hamilton and Floyd Wallace were elected to a committee to arrange for next year's reunion of the family.

CARD OF THANKS

To our dear friends, neighbors and relatives who came to us with comforting words and gracious deeds during our dark and heart-breaking hour, we take this method to try and thank you.

You made it easier and tried to convey in kind and sympathetic words and deeds that you understood our deep sorrow.

Though God works in a mysterious way His wonders to perform, it was His will but the passing away of little Jack was a blow that isn't easy to get over. May God bless and cherish each of you and guide you along the highway of life. The memory of your presence and kindness is deeply engraved in our hearts, never to be erased. And may you be comforted and solaced when the death angel enters your home, as you have comforted us.

And especially do we want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lane for their great help throughout our little boy's illness and death. So again we say, may God hover over each of you and yours throughout.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Albin and children.

MORE ABOUT TEXAS TURKEYS

The United States Egg and Poultry Magazine published by the American Institute of Poultry Industries:

Statistics Are Given.

"In 1938, there were 3,285,000 turkeys grown in Texas which brought a total of $6,866,000 or approximately $2.09 each, whereas Minnesota grew 2,145,000 turkeys that brought $5,663,000, or $2.64 each. Colorado grew 513,000 and received $1,257,000 or $2.45 each and California grew 2,625,000 that were valued at $8,348,000 or $3.19 each. The average for the United States was $2.75 for 1938."

It will be noted that Texas turkeys brought 66c each less than the average price and $1.10 less per bird than was paid to California growers. Texas growers were paid $2,169,000 less than they would have received had they qualified for the average price, and $3,613,500 less than they would have received had they obtained what was paid to California growers.

Loss to Texas Growers.

These figures are worth analyzing, says Demke. They mean that if a farmer brought 10 average Texas turkeys to the market, he would have received $6.60 more for the 10 turkeys had he been paid the national average price for his birds. If this same farmer brought 100 turkeys to the market, his gain would have been $66. If this Texas farmer sold 10 turkeys and received for them the price paid for California turkeys, he would have been ahead $11. On 100 turkeys, he would have had $110 more with which to buy the many things so badly needed in almost every home.

It is common knowledge among buyers that Texas turkeys, as a general rule, are not well finished as those produced in many other States.

Early Feeding Advised.

This year, if the date for Thanksgiving be advanced a week as seems probable, Texas turkeys are likely to go to market in even worse condition than usual, continues Demke. And the price will be correspondingly lower, he thinks.

Demke, therefore, is urging every turkey producer to start now to finish his turkeys for the earlier Thanksgiving market. "It takes from 40 to 50 days really to fatten out a turkey," Demke says, "and Sept. 15 is the last day on which this finishing process should start."

Change In Driver's License Issuance Time Announced

Under the reductions ordered by the biennial Appropriation Bill of the Forty-Sixth Legislature, the Texas Highway Patrol of the Department of Public Safety is having to abandon their patrol stations at Mexia and Cameron. Patrolmen who have been located at these points are being transferred to Waco and Austin to be replaced personnel which has been reduced at those points.

The number of Driver's License Examiners has been reduced from 35 to 32 men, making it necessary, in order to cover the territory involved, to cut the time allotted to each County Seat and to eliminate entirely schedules in towns which are not County Seats. Driver's License Examiners will be at the Court house in Comanche on Monday of each week from 3:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. at which time and place operators and chauffeurs license may be secured.

First Football Scrimmage Due This Afternoon

The first football scrimmage of the 1939 season for the Comanche High School Indians is due this afternoon according to an announcement by Coach Glenn Frazier.

With the first game of the season with Rising Star, only a week away, Coaches Frazier and Barbee are rapidly welding their grid hopefuls into shape, and plan the first real test in the Friday afternoon full game scrimmage.

Approximately forty-five men checked out uniforms during the first week of practice; however, by Thursday afternoon ten of the smaller and least experienced members had dropped out.

The 1939 Indians, defending district champions, will have as their nucleus six lettermen, and eight reserve lettermen. Johnnie Pate, back, and Wilburn Fletcher, guard, are co-captains.

The public is invited to be on hand at the Comanche Ball Park Friday afternoon around 4:30 or 5 o'clock for the first scrimmage of the locals.

Mrs. Bud Newsome returned to her home here Wednesday after a visit in Abilene with her sisters.

NYA Quota For County Is Set

J. C. Kellam, State Administrator, this week advised D. E. Howard, County School Superintendent, that Comanche County's quota of NYA school aid jobs for the 1939-40 school year has been set at 35. The State Administrator said this quota was based on the county's relative youth population and its particular need for NYA school aid jobs.

Mr. Kellam asked the County Superintendent to call a meeting of the local NYA County Placement Committee for the purpose of distributing NYA jobs to the schools within the county. As soon as the committee report is received, forms will be mailed to schools recommended by the committee and approved for participation in the program. He said the school aid program would operate throughout the next school year in much the same manner as it did last year, with only a few minor changes in administration and regulations.

The quota of NYA school aid jobs for the entire State was placed at 12,546. This is an increase of approximately one third over last year's quota, and the State NYA Administrator estimated that some 20-thousand students in Texas secondary schools would be enabled to continue their education this year through operation of the school aid program.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Lewis have returned from Laredo where where they visited their daughter. He reported fishing good. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rauhut.

Credit for breaking a former German monopoly on potash goes to Dr. J. A. Udden, late director of the Bureau of Economic Geology at the University of Texas. Dr. Udden discovered potash bearing minerals in Texas in 1912, later led research to develop an economic means of extracting it from its ore.

The display is proof that West Texas is not a one or two crop country, but shows that this region grows profitably many and varied products.

Photographs and paintings also present the section as an ideal place for hunting and fishing.
